Girls Can Sail

Try Sailing Day

9th December 2018

Women's Sailing Initiative

There are many sports offering opportunities for men and women of all ages to participate.

Sailing is absolutely one of those sports with opportunities for men and women to participate at all ages and in many ways and levels including, but not limited to, active sailing, coaching, club administration and management and race management.

There will be opportunities for girls and boys from 6 years of age through to adult men and women to try sailing in various boats with our experienced instructors at our Try Sailing Day on 9th December 2018. All you need to do is turn up. This event is a great opportunity to try sailing as well as help us to raise funds for our favourite charity, Gold Coast Hospital Foundation.

Paradise Point Sailing Club are also proud to launch a new initiative at this event, with sponsorship from Australian Sailing and the Queensland Government, to provide the opportunity for four (4) women to give sailing a try at this event by participating in an Introduction to Sailing course on our training yacht, Public Nuisance. This course is normally priced at $250 per participant. As a result of the sponsorship, Paradise Point Sailing Club will be offering this course at no cost to the 4 female participants.

The session will commence with a safety briefing at 7.30am, then on the water from 8-11.30am with a debrief to close out the session and finish up by 12pm.

No experience is required, but if you have some that is great too. We do require you to be physically able to climb aboard, pull lines, grind winches - this is an ACTIVE course.

You must be 16 years or older and are very willing to be a keen participant with a good sense of humour and a commitment to fun. All you will need to supply is your own sun protection, water bottle and covered, soft soled shoes.

To nominate for one of these places, please submit your application at <https://www.ppscgc.com/girls-can-sail.html> and simply tell us in 25 words or less why you would like the opportunity to participate in this Introduction to Sailing course. The Paradise Point Sailing Club committee will assess the applications and select the 4 candidates for this course based on your submission.

Paradise Point Sailing Club reserves the right to reschedule the course in the event of unsuitable weather.
